Division 1B—Councils to consult with Victoria Police

6A Consultation with Victoria Police before issuing permit to facilitate public protest

- (1) A Council must consult with Victoria Police before granting an application for a permit for the use of council land, a road closure or anything else that the Council believes will facilitate a public protest being held by the applicant.
- (2) The Minister responsible for the administration of the Victoria Police Act 2013 may publish in the Government Gazette guidelines relating to—
 - (a) how and when consultation with Victoria Police is to be conducted; and
 - (b) the permits or types of permits in relation to which a Council is not required to consult with Victoria Police under this section.
- (3) Any decision of a Council to issue or not issue a permit is not invalid merely because the Council has not complied with this section.

(4) In this section—

Council has the same meaning as in section 3(1)
of the Local Government Act 2020;

S. 6A(4) def. of Council amended by
No. 9/2020

Subdivision 1—Preliminary

Pt 1 Div. 1C
(Headings and new ss 6B–6H)
inserted by
No. 55/2025
s. 80.

6B Definition of public protest

In this Division—

public protest means an event that—

- (a) occurs at a public place, a non-Government school or a post-secondary education institution;
and
- (b) is held to advance, publicise or promote a political, ideological or industrial cause.

New s. 6B
inserted by
No. 55/2025
s. 80.

Subdivision 2—Face coverings at public protests

6C Objectives of Subdivision

The objectives of this Subdivision are—

- (a) to maintain the fundamental right to engage in peaceful protest; and
- (b) to protect the ability of persons to exercise that right without fear of violence; and

New s. 6C
inserted by
No. 55/2025
s. 80.

- (c) to ensure that police can effectively investigate the commission of alleged offences at public protests, including by identifying the alleged offenders; and
- (d) to promote public safety and to prevent violence at public protests; and
- (e) to protect persons from harms that arise from the commission of offences at public protests, under the cover of anonymity, involving conduct that is likely to incite hatred, contempt, revulsion or ridicule.

New s. 6D
inserted by
No. 55/2025
s. 80.

6D Direction to remove face covering worn at public protest

- (1) A police officer may direct a person who is wearing a face covering to cease wearing the face covering as soon as reasonably practicable if—
 - (a) the person is at a place where a public protest is occurring; and
 - (b) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person—
 - (i) committed an offence at that place while the public protest was occurring; or
 - (ii) intends to commit an offence at that place while the public protest is occurring.

Note

The offence may be an offence against section 195N(1) of the Crimes Act 1958. That offence relates to conduct that is likely to incite hatred against, serious contempt for, revulsion towards or severe ridicule of, another person or a group of persons, and that is engaged in on the ground of a protected attribute.

- (2) When giving a direction under subsection (1), the police officer may also direct the person to neither resume wearing the face covering, nor wear any other face covering, while at a place where the public protest is occurring.
- (3) A police officer may also direct a person who is wearing a face covering to cease wearing the face covering as soon as reasonably practicable if—
 - (a) the person—
 - (i) has left a place where a public protest was occurring; or
 - (ii) is at a place where a public protest was occurring but is no longer occurring; and
 - (b) no more than a reasonable amount of time has elapsed since the person left the place or the public protest stopped occurring at that place; and
 - (c) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person committed an offence at that place while the public protest was occurring at that place.
- (4) Immediately before or after giving a direction under subsection (1), (2) or (3), the police officer must warn the person that it is an offence to fail to comply with the direction without a reasonable excuse.
- (5) A direction under subsection (1), (2) or (3), and a warning under subsection (4), may be given orally or in writing.
- (6) A person who—
 - (a) has been given a direction under subsection (1), (2) or (3); and

(b) has been given a warning under subsection (4)—

must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

(7) Without limiting what may be a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with a direction given under this section, it is a reasonable excuse that the face covering is being worn reasonably and in good faith for—

- (a) a genuine religious or cultural purpose; or
- (b) a genuine medical purpose.

Subdivision 3—Locking or securing persons, surfaces and other things at public protests

6E Objectives of Subdivision

The objectives of this Subdivision are—

- (a) to maintain the fundamental right to engage in peaceful protest; and
- (b) to protect the ability of persons to exercise that right without risk of injury; and
- (c) to promote public safety and to prevent injury and serious risks to public safety at public protests.

6F Locking or securing one person to another person or a thing at public protest

A person must not, without reasonable excuse, use a thing or a substance to lock or otherwise secure any person (including themselves) to another person, or to a surface or other thing, at a place where a public protest is occurring if—

6G Seizure of container or other thing

New s. 6G
inserted by
No. 55/2025
s. 80.

- (1) A police officer may seize a container of a substance, or another thing, if—
 - (a) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that a person will imminently commit an offence against section 6F using the substance or the thing; and
 - (b) in the case of a container or other thing that is in a person's possession—
 - (i) the police officer has informed that person that the police officer holds the belief referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) the police officer has asked the person who possesses the container or other thing to hand it over; and

- (iii) the police officer has warned the person that the police officer may seize the thing or container and may use reasonable force to do so.
- (2) A police officer may seize a thing (other than a container of a substance) if—
- (a) a person is locked or otherwise secured using that thing to another person, or to a surface or other thing; and
 - (b) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that this is the result of the commission of an offence against section 6F; and
 - (c) the police officer has informed the person who is locked or otherwise secured that the police officer holds the belief referred to in paragraph (b); and
 - (d) the police officer has asked that person to hand the thing over (whether or not this may require breaking, unlocking or otherwise modifying or operating the thing); and
 - (e) the police officer has warned the person that the police officer may seize the thing and may use reasonable force to do so.
- (3) A police officer may seize a container of a substance if—
- (a) a person is locked or secured to another person, or to a surface or other thing, using the substance; and
 - (b) the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that this is the result of the commission of an offence against section 6F; and

- (c) the police officer has informed the person who is locked or otherwise secured that the police officer holds the belief referred to in paragraph (b); and
 - (d) the police officer has asked that person to hand the container over; and
 - (e) the police officer has warned the person that the police officer may seize the container and may use reasonable force to do so.
- (4) If it is necessary for a police officer to use reasonable force to seize the container or other thing, the police officer may do so.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (4), when seizing a thing other than a container, if it is necessary to break, unlock or otherwise modify or operate the thing in order to seize it, the police officer may do so.
- (6) If the person hands the container or other thing over when asked to do so under subsection (1)(b)(ii), (2)(d) or (3)(d), the container or other thing is taken to have been seized under subsection (1), (2) or (3) (as the case requires).
- (7) Nothing in this section authorises the police officer to search a person or to seize anything that is not fully or partially visible immediately before it is seized.

19 Sexual exposure

- (1) A person (A) commits an offence if—
 - (a) A exposes (to any extent) A's genitals; and
 - (b) A intends to expose (to any extent) A's genitals; and
 - (c) the exposure is sexual; and
 - (d) the exposure is in, or is within the view of, a public place.
- (2) A person who commits an offence against subsection (1) is liable to level 7 imprisonment (2 years maximum).
- (3) It is not a defence to a charge for an offence against subsection (1) that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that the exposure was not sexual.
- (4) It is a defence to a charge for an offence against subsection (1) that, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, A was under a mistaken but honest and reasonable belief that the exposure was not in, or within the view of, a public place.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), A's exposure of A's genitals may be sexual due to—
 - (a) the fact that A seeks or gets sexual arousal or sexual gratification from the exposure; or
 - (b) any other aspect of the exposure, including the circumstances in which it takes place and whether it is contrary to community standards of acceptable conduct.
- (6) A's exposure of A's genitals is not sexual only because it is the genitals that are exposed.

- (7) In this section, a reference to genitals includes a reference to surgically altered or constructed genitals.

28 Recovery of possession of stolen cattle

(1) A person claiming to be entitled to the possession of cattle which—

- (a) have been reported to the police as having been stolen not more than 12 months before the application; and
- (b) are in the possession or under the control of another person—may apply to the Magistrates' Court for an order for delivery of the cattle.

(2) An application—

- (a) may be made without notice to any other person; and
- (b) must be supported by evidence on oath or by affirmation or by affidavit.

S. 28(2)(b)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 119.2).

(3) If satisfied that the applicant may be entitled to possession of the cattle, the Court constituted by a registrar may make an order directing the person who has possession or control of the cattle—

- (a) to deliver them to the applicant; and
- (b) to refrain from disposing of them except in accordance with paragraph (a) pending any further hearing of the application.

(4) An order under subsection (3) must be served on the person to whom it is directed within 7 days after the making of the order.

- (5) Subject to this section, an order under subsection (3)(a) takes effect 7 days after service and an order under subsection (3)(b) takes effect on service.
- (6) If within 7 days after service of an order under subsection (3) the person to whom the order is directed lodges an objection with the Court—
 - (a) the order under subsection (3)(a) lapses and is of no effect; and
 - (b) the application under subsection (1) must be referred to the Court constituted by a magistrate.
- (7) The Court may extend or abridge the time fixed by subsections (4), (5) and (6) or by an order fixing, extending or abridging time.
- (8) The Court may extend time under subsection (7) before or after the time expires whether or not an application for the extension is made before the time expires.
- (9) If it seems to the Court hearing a referral under subsection (6) that all or any of the cattle were stolen not more than 12 months before the application under subsection (1), the Court may—
 - (a) determine who owns the stolen cattle; and
 - (b) order possession of the stolen cattle to be given to the owner; and
 - (c) if necessary, issue a warrant in the form prescribed by rules of the Court directed to a police officer authorising the police officer forthwith to seize the stolen cattle and to deliver them to the owner; and
 - (d) subject to subsection (12), make any order as to costs that the Court thinks fit.

S. 28(9)(c)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 160.11).

- (10) If the Court is not so satisfied, it must dismiss the application.
- (11) The Court may make any order that it thinks fit with respect to the delivery, preservation or care of the cattle pending the determination of an application under this section.
- (12) The person from whom the cattle are seized in accordance with a warrant issued under subsection (9)(c) must pay all lawful costs of executing the warrant.
- (13) An application under this section is civil in nature.
- (14) The Magistrates' Court has jurisdiction to determine an application under this section irrespective of the value of the cattle.

No. 6337 s. 45.

29 Recovery of price paid for stolen cattle

- (1) Any person from whom or from whose possession cattle are taken or detained under an order or warrant under the last preceding section may recover from his vendor the amount paid by him as the purchase money of the cattle.
- (2) Any vendor of such cattle who may repay or is compelled to repay the purchase money he has received for such cattle may in like manner recover back from his vendor the amount he has paid such last-mentioned vendor as the purchase money of the cattle.
- (3) Upon complaint on oath or by affirmation made by any person or vendor as aforesaid or any person on his behalf—
 - (a) that such person or vendor has paid for the cattle and that the cattle have been taken from him; or item 119.1).

(b) that he has paid or been compelled to repay the amount he received—a magistrate may summon the party who sold the cattle to such last-mentioned person or vendor to appear before the Magistrates' Court or may issue a warrant to arrest the party.

(4) Upon the appearance of such party or upon proof of the due service of a summons the Magistrates' Court—

amended by
No. 7876
s. 2(3).

(a) may examine the parties or either of them and their respective witnesses (if any) upon oath or by affirmation touching the purchase and payment of the amount of the purchase money for such cattle and the restitution of the cattle purchased or the repayment of the sum received; and

S. 29(4)(a)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 119.1).

(b) may make such order for the repayment of that amount with the costs incurred in the recovery thereof as to the court appears reasonable:

Provided that the execution of the order shall be stayed for such time as the court may order if the person from whom or from whose possession the cattle have been taken or on whom such order for payment is made forthwith enters into a bond to the complainant with two sufficient sureties in such amount as the court thinks reasonable conditioned to prosecute to conviction within the time aforesaid the person guilty of having stolen the cattle; and a conviction within the time aforesaid shall supersede the order so made by the court as aforesaid, and no subsequent proceedings shall be had thereon:

Provided further that the court on the application of such party and on notice to the complainant may extend the time aforesaid.

41I Statement for this Division

In enacting this Division, the Parliament recognises the continued importance of the swastika as an ancient and auspicious symbol of purity, love, peace and good fortune in Buddhist, Hindu, Jain and other religions. The swastika has had immense significance to these faiths for millennia, long before it was misappropriated by the Nazi Party and Third Reich in Germany. The misuse of the swastika is an affront and cause of deep regret to people of the Buddhist, Hindu and Jain religions. The swastika continues to be embraced by members of these religions and can be found in places of worship, architecture and religious books, as well as in commercial and personal settings such as people's homes.

The distorted version of the symbol is also known as the Hakenkreuz (meaning twisted or hooked cross in German). The Hakenkreuz became a symbol of the Third Reich, under which heinous crimes were perpetrated against humanity, particularly the Jewish people. The Hakenkreuz is a symbol of antisemitism and hatred and of an ideology fundamentally incompatible with Victoria's multicultural, multiethnic and democratic society.

While the Hakenkreuz is perhaps the most recognised symbol of the Third Reich, gestures and other symbols associated with the regime, including the Nazi salute, also incite antisemitism and hatred. As with the Hakenkreuz, the Nazi salute and these other symbols and gestures used by the Nazi Party have no place in Victoria and cause harm to many Victorian communities.

- (b) a search warrant issued under section 465 of the Crimes Act 1958 as applied by section 6H(1) or 41T(1).
- (2) The seized thing becomes eligible to be collected, in accordance with section 60C—
 - (a) by or on behalf of an eligible person referred to in subsection (3); and
 - (b) at the applicable time under subsection (4).
- (3) Each of the following persons is an eligible person—
 - (a) the owner of the seized thing;
 - (b) if the seized thing was in the possession of a person when it was seized—
 - (i) the person to whom a police officer gave information under section 6G(1)(b), (2)(c) or (3)(c); or
 - (ii) the person whom a police officer dealt with under section 41S(1)(c)—as the case requires.
- (4) The applicable time is—
 - (a) when 3 months elapse without a person being charged with an offence against section 6F, 41Q(1) or 41R(5) in respect of the seized thing; or
 - (b) when a decision is made, within the period referred to in paragraph (a), not to charge an offence referred to in that paragraph; or
 - (c) if a person is charged with an offence referred to in paragraph (a), when the proceeding for that offence has concluded without the thing being forfeited under section 60E.

60C Collection of seized thing from police station

- (1) This section applies in relation to a seized thing that, at an applicable time referred to in section 60B(4), becomes eligible for collection by an eligible person referred to in section 60B(3).
- (2) The police officer in charge of the police station at which the seized thing is kept must give notice under this section to each person whose status as an eligible person can be discerned from the records of Victoria Police.
- (3) Notice under this section must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) inform the person to whom it is given—
 - (i) that the person has a right to collect the seized thing; and
 - (ii) that the thing will be forfeited to the Crown if not collected.
- (4) Notice under this section must be given as soon as practicable after the police officer referred to in subsection (2) identifies the person as an eligible person.
- (5) The police officer in charge of the police station at which the seized thing is kept must allow an eligible person to either—
 - (a) attend that police station and collect the thing; or
 - (b) have another person attend and collect the thing on the eligible person's behalf.

- (1) If a seized thing that becomes eligible, under section 60B, for collection under section 60C is not collected before the time specified in subsection (2), the thing is forfeited to the Crown at that time.
- (2) The time at which the seized thing is forfeited is—
 - (a) if at least one eligible person is given notice under section 60C, 3 months after the last eligible person received that notice; or
 - (b) if no eligible person was given notice under section 60C, 4 months after the time at which the seized thing became eligible, under section 60B, for collection under section 60C.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the Minister may direct that a thing forfeited to the Crown under subsection (1) is to be disposed of in any manner the Minister thinks fit.
- (4) If a thing is sold under subsection (3), the proceeds of the sale must be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

Summary Offences Act 1966
No. 7405 of 1966
Endnotes

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
